EXPERTISE

- Procurement law
- Construction contracts
- Public funding and subsidy law
- Privately financed infrastructure (PFI)

Dr Röwekamp primarily advises public principals as well as bidders on all questions of procurement law and represents them in procurement review proceedings. His clients include various municipalities as well as principals from the sectors of transport (airports, port operators, public transport businesses), energy (city utilities) and health/pension schemes.

Dr Röwekamp supports beneficiaries in complying with funding obligations and defending grant reclamations in the event of non-compliance.
